

I drop in now and then for a coffee and gabble. Recently he confided to me, "I wanted to be a dentist years ago, but no dental school would take me. Then I wanted to be a letter carrier, but I couldn't pass the test. So I got into this business. But this is no business for a civilized human being. My wife doesn't know why I'm unhappy. I can't talk to her. She plain doesn't understand. I don't know what to do. Business is good. I wish it was bad, so I could change."
